Colour in the Ka'bah

Read the following passage

The Ka'bah is the first and most ancient place of worship in the world.

The Ka'bah was first built by Prophet Adam (A.S), but gradually disappeared over time. The Ka'bah was then rebuilt by Prophet Ibrahim (A.S) and Ismail (A.S). At that time it didn't have a roof!

Read the following passage

The cover of the Ka'bah is called the Kiswa. It is made out of high quality silk. The embroidery is made out of gold and silver.

Each year the Kiswa is changed on the 9th of Dhul Hijjah and the old one is cut up and gifted to Muslims or museums around the world.
